

to provide higher education for the industrial, professional and communities across the state with rural land."